So young? And hair turning gray? Why not have the early rich color restored? It is easily done, every time.

The Best Shoe Values...

We firmly believe we give the best shoe values in Paducah.

We know the shoe business thoroughly and know shoe values.

It is logical, therefore, that we should be good buyers.

We believe in giving our customers more for their money than they usually get elsewhere.

That's why our business is growing so rapidly, and will continue to do so.

We sell the W. L. Douglass, the Florsheim and Edwin Clapp and others.

Carnival Men Figure in Trials—Confetti Throwing Denounced.

OTHER LOCAL COURT NEWS

Jesse Searle, who was boss of the loop construction gang of the Mundy company, was presented in police court today on a charge of grand larceny. It was alleged he stole about $40 in a canvas sack from Al Perry, of Boston, who had a restaurant with the Mundy attractions. Both quit the show here and intended to go to St. Louis. They went to the Tony Faust saloon and yesterday began to "tank up." They were joined by Lyman Wilson, of Paducah, and another man, and Searle took Perry's money to keep for him, he said, as Perry was so drunk he had to be put to bed. He went down to see about the tickets and when he returned to the hotel he was arrested. Perry wanted the charge dismissed, as he is sober today, and the evidence showed that Wilson sent for an officer on his own responsibility. The evidence was not strong enough to hold and require a bond, and Searle was recognized for his appearance before the grand jury.

Hattie Johnson, colored, a chambermaid at the St. Nicholas hotel, pleaded guilty to stealing a pocketbook containing $10 from Mr. W. Y. Robertson's room at the hotel. She said she picked it up on the floor. She was given 30 days and Lige Terrell, colored, who got the bill changed for her and denied it to the police, was given 60 days for complicity in the theft.

A case against James McRae, charged with stealing $2.50 from George Wilkins, was given a continuance. It is understood he is very ill.

Victor Leavitt, a carnival man, was fined $5 and costs for a breach of the peace.

Dress Moore was fined $7.50 and F. Zimmerman $5, for a breach of the peace, with another painter, B. Buchard, who was dismissed.

A case against Quennie Reed for using insulting language was continued until tomorrow. General Thomas Allen for stealing a pair of shoes at Harburt's, was given ninety days on the streets.

George Lynn was fined $3 and costs for trouble originating from confetti throwing. He got mad and struck the man who threw it. Judge Sanders took occasion to criticize confetti throwing, and stated that it was dangerous, and there was an ordinance against it, and furthermore that the carnival people, including Colonel Mundy, did not approve of it. As long as it was permitted, however, and as it was thrown, people who go to a carnival ought to know what to expect and not get mad at it, he declared. They should take the consequences of "doing while in Rome as Rome does."

The forgery case against W. M. Douglas, brought back from Memphis a few days ago, was continued until Wednesday.

Harry Green, a strange was fined $1 for sleeping in a box car.

Wm. Pritchett was fined $10 and costs for a breach of the peace and recognized in the sum of $300 for his good behavior towards Mrs. Pritchett.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A verdict for $400 was today rendered in circuit court in favor of Mrs. M. E. Beadles against Mary De Machennes, the Louisville woman who was in Paducah a few years ago and taught physical culture and professed to be some sort of a magnetic healer. It seems she borrowed money and gave her note, Mrs. C. E. Graham, of Paducah, becoming her security. Mrs. Machennes did not pay Mrs. Beadles and suit was brought on the note. The court today decided that Mrs. Graham was not liable as being a married woman her signature without that of her husband, was not legal security. The judgment is accordingly against Mrs. De Machennes, against whom there is also pending in circuit court here an indictment for alleged false swearing in the case.

T. M. Fenwick, Antoine Post, E. M. Wesson, W. M. Webb, W. A. Martin were excused as petit jurors and L. F. Bennett, G. W. Lee, T. J. Council, A. W. Townsend and E.

PADUCAH BOY DIES IN ARKANSAS TOWN

Mr. E. J. Bergdoll a Victim of Typhoid Pneumonia.

Mr. Fred Rudy's Child Dies—Mr. John Quigley Buried.

DEATH AT CALVERT CITY

Mr. Edmund Bergdoll, son of Mr. F. J. Bergdoll, of Tenth and Madison streets, and a member of Paducah lodge of Elks, died at Hartford, Ark., Saturday afternoon before his father, who left Paducah Friday evening, reached him. The news was quite a shock to the young man's many friends here.

He was 25 years old, and was formerly with his father here in the soda pop business, but later went to St. Louis, and from there to Hartford, where he had been since December engaged in the manufacturing of pop. He had in his letters home been complaining of a slight illness, but it was not thought to be serious. Typhoid pneumonia suddenly developed and he succumbed.

A telegram came after his father left saying that he was improved, and the one so closely following it announcing his death was a great surprise. The deceased was well known here, and was a popular young man. He was a member of Paducah lodge of Elks and of the St. Francis De Sales church. The remains were brought in at 2 a. m. today.

The funeral will take place at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning from the St. Francis De Sales church, burial at the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Joe Bergdoll, a brother, who is attending school at Quincy, Ill., will arrive today.

Fred, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudy, died late Saturday afternoon at the home of his parents on Fountain avenue, near Jefferson, after an illness of many weeks of tonsillitis, followed by blood poison. The little fellow was five years of age and was unusually bright and attractive. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Rudy in their sad bereavement.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the family residence, conducted by Rev. T. J. Newell of the Broadway Methodist church. The burial was at Oak Grove.

The funeral of Mr. John Quigley took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of his parents, Colonel and Mrs. Q. Q. Quigley in Arcadia. The services were conducted by Rev. M. M. Benton, of Louisville, archdeacon of the diocese of Kentucky, and the burial was at Oak Grove.

Mrs. W. W. English, wife of a well known attorney of Marshall county, died yesterday at Calvert City. She was about 46 years old and leaves several children, one of them Mrs. H. N. Robertson, of Sharpe, wife of the well known physician. The burial took place today at Bethelhem cemetery.

Farley substituted.

Court adjourned at 10 o'clock on account of Attorney J. K. Hendrick's absence. Several actions are set for trial today where he will sit as special judge and being in Smithland and unable to get here this morning, the court adjourned until the afternoon or until he arrives.
